CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH, J.

DATED: 22nd January, 2007.

P.C.:-

1. The contempt petition is filed on the allegations that the movable property which has been attached in execution has been moved out of the jurisdiction of this Court. The executing Court has all the necessary powers to take appropriate action if the allegation of the petitioner is correct. In my opinion, therefore, it will not be proper to entertain the contempt petition in such a situation. The petition, is therefore, disposed of.
